Sportsmanship: Skill in or devotion to sports; esp., conduct becoming to a sportsman, involving honest rivalry and graceful acceptance of results. One who is fair and generous; a good loser and a graceful winner. .

We would be consistent if we use the same criteria for grading.

Do the coach and captain greet you and shake hands before the match?

Do the coach and captain shake hands with the officials after the match?

Do the coach and or players frequently question the referee's calls?

Do the players show visible signs of disagreement with the referee's calls?

Do the players fire the ball back under or over the net to show anger?

Does the coach correct the players' behavior and attitudes?

Does the coach exhort the team to play the game and not the calls?

Do the players appreciate the efforts of the opposing team?

Does the coach respect the rules and abide by them?

Do the coaches berate their own players?
