ARTICLE X. Revised 5/25/21.

ETHICS CODE AND PROCEDURES:

A. Purpose:

1. The purpose of the Ethics Code and Procedures is to state the philosophy of NVO regarding the desired and acceptable behavior of its members and to establish procedures to evaluate and resolve alleged improper, incompetent or unethical violations as per NVO Handbook.

B. Conduct. Moved to NVO Handbook.

C. Ethics Committee:

1. The Ethics Committee shall be empowered to act in accordance with the procedures set forth herein whenever a matter of alleged improper, incompetent or unethical conduct is presented to the Executive Board. (Article VI – C).

D. Official Notice

1. An allegation of any improper, incompetent or unethical conduct may be lodged against any member for engaging in conduct, which is in violation of the prohibitions or mandates of this operating code.
2. An allegation of unethical conduct shall be made in writing to the Ethics Committee Chairperson and shall be postmarked within ten (10) school calendar business days (SCBD) of the Occurrence of alleged improper, incompetent or unethical conduct. The allegation shall be specific and shall include the respondents name, nature of the conduct, the date of the occurrence, the location, the names of any other person(s) involved, and any witnesses or any other pertinent information that would be useful.
3. The Chairperson of the Ethics Committee will then convene a meeting of the Ethics Committee.
4. The Ethics Committee shall evaluate the allegation and determine whether the conduct or actions in the complaint is in violation of this code or in any way prejudicial to the interests of NVO, a member or the membership in general.
5. The Ethics Committee shall decide as to whether the evidence provided is of such weight as to permit a preliminary finding or to compel a hearing to investigate further. Notice of allegation, preliminary finding or compelled hearing shall be sent to member via a vehicle that provides a return receipt within ten (10) (SCBD) of such determination. The hearing, if compelled, shall be set no less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) (SCBD) from receipt of notification by member.
6. The member, after being notified of allegation or preliminary finding may either plead guilty to such allegation or preliminary finding or request a hearing. Such plea/request to be in writing, returned to the Ethics Chairperson via a vehicle that provides for a return receipt within ten (10) (SCBD) of receipt of original notification.
7. The Ethics Committee shall notify the member of the hearing date set via a vehicle that provides a return receipt.

E. Hearing:

1. The Chairperson of the Ethics committee shall preside at the hearing and shall make all determinations as to the proper conduct of the hearing.
2. All parties may present evidence and/or witnesses in support of their position and the Ethics Committee may on its own motion, seek the attendance of witnesses or the presentation of evidence which the committee, in its discretion, deems material to the proper determination of any issue.
3. Questions of fact at the hearing shall be determined by preponderance of evidence.
4. The decision of the Ethics Committee shall be based on a majority of the members present at the hearing.
5. Upon a finding that a member is guilty, the Ethics Committee may assess a reprimand, a fine, probation, suspension, and/or dismissal or any combination thereof, depending upon the nature of the conduct.
6. The Ethics Committee shall record its decision and shall notify the member concerned by registered mail within fifteen (15) (SCBD) of the hearing Date.

F. Appeal:

1. A member found to have violated this code shall have the right to appeal such decision in writing to the Chairperson of the Ethics Committee within fifteen (15) (SCBD) days of the post date of the notification provided in Article X, Section E.6. Such appeal shall fully describe in writing, members' grounds for appeal to include any newly acquired evidence. The Chairperson of the respective division shall determine whether a meeting of the Appeals Committee shall convene to hear such appeal. Any such appeal has the right to be made in front of the Appeals Committee, which is a different pool of members. The Appeals Committee is chaired by the division Chairperson-Elect and a pool of four (4) additional members different from the original committee. (All members of the division who have been members of the association for a minimum of five (5) years are ELIGIBLE TO SERVE ON THIS COMMITTEE. The selection of this committee shall be made at random at an Executive Board meeting of NVO.

2. The Appeals Committee shall, upon being convened, consider the new evidence and may either affirm or overrule the prior decision and/or penalty previously assessed by the majority vote of the Ethics Committee. The Appeals Committee shall notify the member concerned, in writing, of its decision within fifteen (15) (SCBD) of receipt of the request for review of the new evidence. As provided in section 1, the decision of the Appeals Committee shall be final and shall be the decision of NVO.

G. Records and Fines:

1. Complete records shall be maintained, and all actions taken under the Ethics Code and Procedure and upon disposition of a matter shall be filed with the Secretary/Treasurer.
2. All fines shall be payable to the Secretary/Treasurer and shall be placed in the operating treasury of NVO within twenty (20) (SCBD) after the final decision is rendered.
3. A failure to pay a fine assessed, as provided herein, shall result in the member's name being deleted from the listing of members in good standing in NVO.

THE EXECUTIVE BOARD SHALL HAVE THE POWER TO RULE ON ALL ISSUES NOT SPECIFICALLY COVERED WITHIN THIS OPERATING CODE.
